April 2018

Through Christ we put God first by teaching reaching and loving all!

Well, if you are reading this, then we survived Holy Week!! Easter, the season of resurrection. What does that mean to you? It means a lot to me and those who I have worked with over the year. A young mom who is scared to death to move out on her own. Just her and her child leaving an abusive relationship where she was told she was nothing and unlovable, she hid from the pain and shame in drugs. Once the drugs took over her life, she truly became that undesirable person she so feared she was. She believed her way into darkness, death, and destruction. It was through Christ and the resurrection, and my belief in the risen Christ, that helped me to see through to the one-time strong and faithful young lady. This resurrection and life that flows through my faith and belief made me able to treat her like she is through the risen savior, not the broken beat-down woman she had become. This light and life I was shining gave her hope to take the next steps of rehab and restoration and life. She now is restored to her family and has her children back. Not because of anything I had done, but by the very hand of God who saved us all through the life, death and the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We cannot be the church of the past! Where we judge and look down at sinners, as if we are not. We all fall short. "But in our time something new has been added. What Moses and the prophets witnessed to all those years has happened. The God-setting-things-right that we read about has become Jesus-setting-things-right for us. And not only for us, but for everyone who believes in him. For there is no difference between us and them in this. Since we've compiled this long and sorry record as sinners (both us and them) and proved that we are utterly incapable of living the glorious lives God wills for us, God did it for us. Out of sheer generosity he put us in right standing with himself. A pure gift. He got us out of the mess we're in and restored us to where he always wanted us to be. And he did it by means of Jesus Christ. God sacrificed Jesus on the altar of the world to clear that world of sin. Having faith in him sets us in the clear. God decided on this course of action in full view of the public—to set the world in the clear with himself through the sacrifice of Jesus, finally taking care of the sins he had so patiently endured. This is not only clear, but it's now—this is current history! God sets things right. He also makes it possible for us to live in his rightness." (Romans 3:21-26) (Message)

I remember a young man raised in the church, but as he grew in years, he slowly moved away from the church because of things said and done by people of faith who made remarks about their feelings of tattoos, hair style, and earrings. Being judged by the very people who are to love you makes the hurt deeper. It cuts like a knife. I got to know those people. They even judged me and said hurtful things to me. Some of their remarks were uncalled for and were not even correct. I could see how a young man would have been hurt and would stay away. I worked with the young man and his family. He had a true faith. It was a deep faith and a strong faith, but he had been put down, not built up. It is funny how the church can sometimes not represent Christ. The very body of Christ, not welcoming the weary. When we hear Christ say, “Are you tired? Worn out? Burned out on religion? Come to me. Get away with me and you’ll recover your life. I’ll show you how to take a real rest. Walk with me and work with me—watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won’t lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with me and you’ll learn to live freely and lightly.” (Matthew 11:28-30) (Message) or “Let me give you a new command: Love one another. In the same way I loved you, you love one another. This is how everyone will recognize that you are my disciples—when they see the love you have for each other.” (John 13:34-35) (Message) The story ends on a good note. We the congregation of Good Hope Lutheran Church have more positive life- giving people than we have those who are negative. We have more to do about life- giving then life- taking. We are a sinful people who make mistakes and God forgives, not just forgives, but sent God’s one and only Son that we might have life. Abundant life in spite of our negative ways and lack of faith. Those persons I deal with each and every day that don’t know their left hand from their right. Who don’t see that the Love of God Is for them. They have the forgiveness of sin and life everlasting and God loves them. God will not let them be put to shame. God restores all who fall and lifts up all who fall down. It is a good story, it is the Gospel. It is the Good news. We not only hear, we shout that God so loved the world that at the right time God sent his only begotten Son to save us while we were still sinners. At the right time Christ came for you and me the ungodly. We now have a chance to share Christ with the rest of the world right in the middle of being ungodly.

Take this time after Easter, to get settled in the new command to love one another as Christ has loved us. Get ready and prepare for Pentecost. The coming of the Holy Spirit. The coming of the Advocate. Get ready church for the energy and renewal of our very lives. The life of the Church. The renewing of the Good Hope!! Amen!!

Wendy and I would like to thank everyone who helped or came to celebrate at our wedding. God has certainly blessed us with wonderful friends and family here at Good Hope Lutheran Church! We truly have been overwhelmed with the outpouring of love and support for our union and coming together as husband and wife. God bless you,

Pastor Ralph

Dorcas Circle ~ Hannah Circle

MONTHLY MEETINGS

HANNAH CIRCLE: Second Tuesday at 10:00 AM

DORCAS CIRCLE: Second Wednesday at 10:30 AM

PURPOSE:

As a community of women, created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

HANNAH CIRCLE NEWS

Hannah Circle met March 13th at the church with 6 members present. Barbie Gray opened the meeting with devotions and prayer.

We discussed making ornaments for Christmas Eve. We will decide between 2 ornament possibilities depending upon materials available.

Our cookie collection for the Rescue Mission was March 18th. Thank you, all bakers! The cookies were gratefully received and much appreciated.

Please continue to save greeting and Christmas cards for Hannah Circle. St. Mary's Alzheimer's Center uses them in crafts.

Also save foil and aluminum cans for Hannah as this is our only fundraiser.

Our next meeting will be April 10th. We will meet at the church at 10:00a.m. and then proceed to visit shut-ins.

Thank you

DORCAS CIRCLE NEWS

Dorcas Circle met March 14th at Steamer's in North Lima to enjoy fellowship. Our next meeting will be April 11th at Shepherd of the Valley.

Stewardship Team

2018– Make this your year of prayer!

Choose a neighbor, friend, caregiver, person from our congregation, or someone you meet along the way, and start praying for them. Pray for answers if they are having issues. If all is well, pray in celebration!

Contact that person and let them know you are praying for them. Phone calls, visits, and cards could also be incorporated in this.

Our next meeting is April 3, at 7:00pm at Good Hope. Your ideas are always welcome!

DATE	EVENT NAME	COLOR	READINGS	INTRODUCTION
April 1st	Resurrection of Our Lord: Easter Day	white	Acts 10: 34-43 Psalm 118: 1-2, 14-24 1 Corinthians 15: 1-11 John 20: 1-18	This year may be the one in which John's resurrection account is likely to be chosen over Mark's, perhaps because Mark's gospel ends so abruptly, with astonishment and fear rather than joyful proclamation. Yet Mark may speak to our experience more directly than the other gospels. Corinthians and Acts fill out the story by telling of appearances of the risen Christ. Peter says we "ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead." And so do we, in a foretaste of the mountaintop feast where death will be no more.
April 8th	Second Sunday of Easter	white	Acts 4:32-35 Psalm 133 1 John 1:1-2:2 John 20: 19-31	The Easter season is a week of weeks, seven Sundays when we play in the mystery of Christ's presence, mostly through the glorious Gospel of John. Today we gather with the disciples on the first Easter, and Jesus breathes the Spirit on us. With Thomas we ask for a sign, and Jesus offers us his wounded self in the broken bread. From frightened individuals we are transformed into a community of open doors, peace, forgiveness, and material sharing such that no one among us is in need.
April 15th	Third Sunday of Easter	white	Acts 3:12-19 Psalm 4 1 John 3:1-7 Luke 24:36b-48	The gospel for the third Sunday of Easter is always one in which the risen Christ shares food with the disciples, meals that are the Easter template for the meal we share each Lord's day. In today's gospel, Jesus both shares the disciples' food and shows them the meaning of his suffering, death, and resurrection through the scriptures: the two main elements of our Sunday worship.
April 22nd	Fourth Sunday of Easter	white	Acts 4:5-12 Psalm 23 1 John 3:16-24 John 10:11-18	The image of the Good Shepherd shows us how the risen Christ brings us to life. It is the relationship between the shepherd and the sheep, one of mutual knowledge and love, that gives the shepherd authority. The shepherd's willingness to lay down his life for the sheep shows his love. First John illustrates what it means to lay down our lives for one another by the example of sharing our wealth with any sister or brother in need.
April 29th	Fifth Sunday of Easter	white	Acts 8:26-40 Psalm 22:25-31 1 John 4:7-21 John 15:1-8	This Sunday's image of how the risen Christ shares his life with us is the image of the vine. Christ the vine and we the branches are alive in each other, in the mystery of mutual abiding that we read of in the gospel and the first letter of John. Baptism makes us a part of Christ's living and life-giving self and makes us alive with Christ's life. As the vine brings food to the branches, Christ feeds us at his table. We are sent out to bear fruit for the life of the world.
May 6th	Sixth Sunday of Easter	white	Acts 10:44-48 Psalm 98 1 John 5:1-6 John 15:9-17	This Sunday's image of the life the risen Christ shares with us is the image of friendship. We are called to serve others as Jesus came to serve; but for John's gospel, the image of servanthood is too hierarchical, too distant, to capture the essence of life with Christ. Friendship captures the love, the joy, the deep mutuality of the relationship into which Christ invites us. The Greeks believed that true friends are willing to die for each other. This is the mutual love of Christian community commanded by Christ and enabled by the Spirit.
