June 2017

Through Christ we put God first by teaching reaching and loving all!

So, what is Pentecost? We can't lose sight of the Greek, which means 50. 50 days from the Passover week. We know it is when a little flame landed upon the disciples and they were able to speak in all different languages. We know that it is a day when two of God's promises come true. One promise is in the Old Testament – Joel 2:28, which says "I will pour out my Spirit on all people", and one in the New, where Jesus says he will send another Counsellor, the Spirit of truth (John 16: 5-15). These are things that make Pentecost important. Do we celebrate it well enough? I consider Pentecost a season to celebrate, like Christmas and Easter. It should be a new day for us, a rebirthing! Where our lives should be transformed and changed. We should acknowledge the spirit that has been poured out on us. The Holy Spirit now moves through us! The breath of God blows a power that strengthens us for service. Our minds are renewed with the Spirit of Truth. We have received the advocate. I get so excited when I know that the Holy Spirit is coming!! How about you??

I see a wreath with five candles. One candle to represent God the Father, another to represent Jesus the Redeemer. A third candle for the Holy Spirit. Those three candles are white. Then we have the two red candles. The first of the red candles to represent the promises of God and Jesus! Promises God keeps. The second red candle to represent our place in this season of Pentecost. You see? By receiving the promises of God, we recognize our place in the body of Christ. The second candle is lit by us, to affirm our part in this relationship. As we receive the breath of God, and as we receive the forgiveness of our sins, and we receive the strengthening and comfort of the advocate, "The Holy Spirit", to pour out what we ourselves have received to the rest of the world. We light that last candle as affirmation of love to the world with our actions, prayers, and resources. We become an active part of the ministry of God. We are not just called, but we accept the call to minister the Gospel to all the world. Not with just words, but with actions and deeds, deeds of love.

God's work our hands!!

I have heard a lot about Church growth. Everyone wants the church to grow. I think we put so much importance on numbers. I feel true growth is working together in spite of our differences. I see a church that grows in love and concern for one another. We hurt when one of us is hurting. We reach out and help one another with the gifts we ourselves have received from our Lord. We forgive because we have been forgiven. We realize that we do not know the struggle others have had just to get to the same place as we are. I lift to us, a member of the Sunday School class, who has had a long struggle with grief. They fought hard to come to church on Sundays just to get away from the pain of the week and the struggle with the pain and loneliness. When they got to church they saw love, heard the proclamation of the Gospel, and left with a spring and bounce in their step. As they stated, they got a few hours of relief from the pain of the week. They also noticed they had a fighting chance to feel the strength and felt equipped to battle the pain and despair of depression. You see, we have been equipped by Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit, to speak the language of Love in sooo many ways. That all might hear those words. You are a child of God, sealed by the Holy Spirit, and marked with the cross of Christ.

Rev Ralph Edwards

Youth & Family

As we enter the summer season, with so much to do and what feels like so little time. Remember that the memories you make with family and friends are important. The time you spend making these memories are the ones that will last forever. Make sure to take the time truly appreciate your family and thank God for every moment you get to spend with them. These children our the future and the more you spend time with them the more memories they will eventually look back on with fondness. Truly take the time to BE family with those around you.

God Bless,

Nathan Edwards

Dorcas Circle ~ Hannah Circle

MONTHLY MEETINGS

HANNAH CIRCLE: Second Tuesday at 10:00 AM
DORCAS CIRCLE: Second Wednesday at 10:30 AM

PURPOSE:

As a community of women, created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

HANNAH CIRCLE NEWS

Hannah Circle met at the church on May 9th with 6 members present. We discussed ornaments for Christmas Eve and Graduation Sunday. Hannah Circle will provide the cake if we have some graduates. Information is to follow and there we can put our plan into action. We watched Bible Study #2, My Rock and My Fortress. Discussion followed. We then enjoyed lunch and fellowship at C's Waffles. Please continue to save aluminum cans and foil for Hannah Circle as it is our only fundraiser. At our next meeting we will plan the coming year's schedule. It will be held on June 13th at 10am at the church. Barbie Gray will lead devotions.

DORCAS CIRCLE NEWS

Dorcus Circle met at Shepherd of the valley on May 18, 2017.

The meeting was opened with devotion and prayer for family and friends. Annemarie presented a program on Noah and in a lighter vein read a poem on "How God Created Women" followed by a lively discussion on each.

The June meeting will be on June 14 at Shepherd of the Valley. Marilyn will have the devotion and program. "Love Gifts" for the Day Camp will be collected.

The meeting Closed with Prayer.

Stewardship Committee

Please join us on June 6th at 7pm at the church to complete our Pentecost program. The committee is exploring new ways of reaching out to these who can easily be forgotten. Jennifer Rags will be mentoring us. Come and see what I happening at Good Hope on June 4th. As you relax this summer take time to renew your Stewardship life. Your life can be greatly enriched by the very people who need you.

Have a Relaxed and Blessed Summer,
 Stewardship Committee.

DATE	EVENT NAME	COLOR	READINGS	INTRODUCTION
June 4th	Pentecost	Red	Acts 2:1-21 Psalm 104:24-34, 35b 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13 John 20:19-23	Today's festival derives its name from the Jewish festival of Pentecost, observed fifty days after Passover. On the fiftieth day of Easter we celebrate the Holy Spirit as the power of God among us that heals, forgives, inspires, and unites. In the reading from Acts, images of wind and fire describe the Spirit poured out on disciples of all nations. In John's gospel the risen Christ breathes the Spirit on his followers on Easter evening. In the one Spirit we are baptized into one body, and at the Lord's table the Spirit unites us for witness in the world.
June 11th	Holy Trinity	White	Genesis 1:1—2:4a Psalm 8 2 Corinthians 13:11-13 Matthew 28:16-20	Though the word trinity is not found in the scriptures, today's second reading includes the apostolic greeting that begins the liturgy: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. In the gospel Jesus sends his disciples forth to baptize in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. More than a doctrine, the Trinity expresses the heart of our faith: we have experienced the God of creation made known in Jesus Christ and with us always through the Holy Spirit. We celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity in word and sacrament, as we profess the creed, and as we are sent into the world to bear witness to our faith.
June 18th	Second Sunday After Pentecost	Green	Exodus 19:2-8a Psalm 100 Romans 5:1-8 Matthew 9:35—10:8 [9-23]	Moses tells the Israelites that they are called to be a priestly kingdom and a holy people. Jesus sends out the disciples as laborers into the harvest. In baptism we too are anointed for ministry, sharing God's compassion with our needy world. From the Lord's table, we go forth to proclaim the good news, to heal the sick, and to share our bread with the hungry.
June 25th	Third Sunday After Pentecost	Green	Jeremiah 20:7-13 Psalm 69:7-10 [11-15] 16-18 Romans 6:1b-11 Matthew 10:24-21	Jeremiah knew the frustration of having his words rejected. Jesus declares that his words may not bring peace, but division. In baptism we are buried with Christ that we may walk in newness of life. As we take stands for the sake of justice and lose our lives for the sake of others, we need not be afraid. The hairs of our head are counted. In baptism we are marked with the cross of Christ forever.
July 2nd	Fourth Sunday After Pentecost	Green	Jeremiah 28:5-9 Psalm 89:1-4, 15-18 Romans 6:12-23 Matthew 10:40-42	The welcome of baptism is for all God's children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today's gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God's merciful welcome.
