November 2018

Through Christ we put God first by teaching reaching and loving all!

This month for me is all about Thanksgiving! I get excited about the weather. It becomes crisp and smells of Fall. Let's just say I love the smells of the leaves, the burning wood, and of course the turkey, pumpkin pie, and stuffing. What is not to love about snuggling closer to keep warm, and getting ready for togetherness. Here at Good Hope, we get ready for the Krautfest, you know sauerkraut and kielbasa. That dinner will have the largest part of its proceeds go to the Good Grief camp held at Camp Frederick this summer.

It is a time when we realize how blessed we are, and we hold Harvest Sunday, the day we give back to the local food bank at the 3C's. We gather the food up and on Sunday we bless it and send to where it can feed those who are struggling to make ends meet. It is only when we appreciate what we have, that we can let go and give to others. I love to watch the front of the church get filled with the things we put on the list to give back to the God we have faith in. A God who gives to us whether we acknowledge or not.

What a gift to watch this year, as you the people of Good Hope start to get involved in the church and ministries of the Church. You have been working on Thrivent Action team events and earning monies to help us to serve our neighbors. Watching you as you respond to the Capital Improvement Campaign has been wonderful to see, and I am so thankful for all of you and your gifts of time, talents, and resources. THANK YOU!!!!

I am thankful for a group of young people who want to take confirmation. We have been having fun and working hard. They even did a great job at the Three Wise Men BBQ.

November 26

I heard reports from the adults that the youth were smiling and happy. They did the running for the adults, bringing things from the outside to the kitchen up and down the stairs. It was wonderful. We are so blessed. I thank God for it. We are going to our first overnighter at Camp Frederick to study the Ten Commandments. I am so excited, I cannot wait to get there!

I am thankful for the 2018 Discipleship class. They have pushed me harder on my own devotion and discipleship. They have worked hard on anointing and assisting with worship. They have each in their own way encouraged me. I thank God for you.

I thank God for the leadership team of this congregation, the council members, with their adjusting to losing a musician to the hiring, or should I say calling, a musician who can help us move forward. We are blessed with Sue, and I thank God for her. Then there are the treasurers we went through. We hired Sandy who then was offered an amazing new position and had to leave us. We hired a replacement and she didn't quite work out. We then hired Kelly who has just been a delight. Kelly has the experience and expertise to take us to a better place with our financials. I have high hopes and expectations, and I thank God for Kelly. I thank God for council's patience and faith through this year. The new training that the synod did was an eye opener to me. We are not doing as bad as we thought. Yes, we need to be vigilant and keep striving to communicate to the congregation, but we are looking pretty good in this age that we are in.

I am thankful for Wendy and the work she does in the office. She takes the day of worship and sacrifices it to serve the congregation. She handles stuff to give me the freedom to do the work that I have been called to and allows me time for rest. What a gift. We have been truly blessed with some one who cares for us and wants to serve us. I thank God for her presence in the life of this church.

Last but not least is each person who walks through the doors of Good Hope. Whether you call yourself a member or a visitor. Thank you for worshipping with us. Thank you for enjoying or putting up with our mannerisms and our flaws. Thank you for being the strength of the Body of Christ in this community of Hope. No, not just hope but Good Hope!!

Dorcas Circle ~ Hannah Circle

MONTHLY MEETINGS

HANNAH CIRCLE: Second Tuesday at 10:00 AM
DORCAS CIRCLE: Second Wednesday at 10:30 AM

PURPOSE:

As a community of women, created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the church, the society, and the world.

HANNAH CIRCLE NEWS

Hannah Circle met at the church October 9th with six members present.

Tracey Byler opened the meeting with devotions.

We finalized plans for ornaments to be made to be given at the Christmas Eve services.

We enjoyed food and fellowship at Pizza Joe's after Loetta Haller asked the blessing.

Please remember to save aluminum foil and cans for Hannah Circle as this is our only fundraiser.

Our next meeting will be November 13th at 10:00 am at the church with Carol Jean Horst leading devotions.

DORCAS CIRCLE NEWS

Our October meeting was our annual outing at Ruby Tuesdays on October 17th. We met at SOV at 12:30. We shared fun, food, and fellowship!

The November meeting will be on November 14th at SOV at 1:00pm.

Stewardship Team

The stewardship team met on October 9th. We created a visitor/ new member packet. Thank you Sarah for organizing the information! Sarah is researching the best company to go with for online giving. Our next meeting will be November 14 at 7pm.

Dinner Team

The dinner team had a wonderful turnout for the Three Wise Men BBQ. Once again they sold out by 4:00! The confirmation class helped serve and clean up. The proceeds were donated to the church's operating expense in the amount of $1,469.00. Also, the Levites have donated the balance of their account, $2,490.00, to help buy a new commercial refrigerator and 2 new stoves and other kitchen supplies. Tammy and John Chuey and Michael Elford have cleaned, painted, and organized the kitchen and storage room next to the kitchen. Thanks to you all!

DATE	EVENT NAME	COLOR	READINGS	INTRODUCTION
November 4th	All Saints Sunday	white	Isaiah 25: 6-9 Psalm 24 Revelation 21: 1-6a John 11: 32-44	Of all three years of the lectionary cycle, this year's All Saints readings have the most tears. Isaiah and Revelation look forward to the day when God will wipe away all tears; in John's gospel, Jesus weeps along with Mary and all the gathered mourners before he demonstrates his power over death. On All Saints Day we celebrate the victory won for all the faithful dead, but we grieve for our beloved dead as well, knowing that God honors our tears. We bring our grief to the table and find there a foretaste of Isaiah's feast to come.
November 11th	25th Sunday After Pentecost	green	1 Kings 17: 8-16 Psalm 146 Hebrews 9: 24-28 Mark 12: 38-44	Widows are visible everywhere in today's readings. Jesus denounces those scribes who pray impressive prayers but devour widows' houses. He commends the poor widow who in his view gave far more than the major donors. Jesus doesn't see her simply as an object of compassion or charity. She, like the widow of Zarephath who shares her last bit of food with Elijah, does something of great importance.
November 18th	26th Sunday After Pentecost	green	Daniel 12: 1-3 Psalm 16 Hebrews 10: 11-25 Mark 13: 1-8	November begins with All Saints Day and ends in or near Advent, when we anticipate Christ's coming again. So the readings today tell of the final resurrection and the end time. In the turmoil of hope, fear, and disbelief that these predictions provoke in us, Hebrews sounds a note of confident trust. Christ makes a way for us where there is no way, and we walk it confidently, our hearts and bodies washed in baptismal water, trusting the one who has promised. The more we see the last day approaching, the more important it is to meet together to provoke one another to love.
November 21st	Day of Thanksgiving	green	Joel 2:21-27 Psalm 126 1 Timothy 2:1-7 Matthew 6: 25-33	Today's readings reflect two of the strains that go into the celebration of a national day of thanksgiving: gratitude for abundant harvest (Joel) and civic prayer for a peaceable common life (1 Timothy). The core meaning of Thanksgiving for many of us—a home feast for extended family and friends—is not reflected in the readings; but it is reflected weekly in the church's meal of thanksgiving (eucharist). What we wish for both these thanksgiving meals is that they will go deeper than celebration of one another and our own blessings, to recognize in our true Host one who wants everyone brought to the table.
November 25th	Christ the King	white	Daniel 7: 9-10, 13-14 Psalm 93 Revelation 1: 4b-8 John 18: 33-37	Even after Israel had experienced the vagaries of kings, they still longed for a true king to set things right. He would have the king's title of Anointed One (Messiah); he would be the "one like a human being" (Son of Man) given dominion in Daniel's vision. Jesus is given these titles, even though he is nothing like an earthly king. His authority comes from the truth to which he bears witness, and those who recognize the truth voluntarily listen to him. We look forward to the day he is given dominion, knowing his victory will be the nonviolent victory of love.

The congregation of Good Hope Lutheran Church wishes to thank the family and friends of Arden and Jeanie Sauerwein. We have received $2,850.00 in memorial donations to the capital improvement fund. We appreciate your generosity!

Grown-up Christmas List

The people of Good Hope have a long history of responding well to requests to provide Christmas gifts for needy children of the community. Your generosity is commendable and greatly appreciated.

This year we are going to have the chance to bless our elderly neighbors as well. Think about it: our area is home to a number of nursing homes, each of which is full of women and men who have led productive lives and raised families. And now, sadly, some of these same people are left with no one to return the love they have shared so generously throughout their lives.

My goal is to change that in some small way, by providing Christmas gifts for some of these neighbors. To that end, I have contacted the Activities Director at Shepherd of the Valley for gift suggestions for residents who have no family or friends able to provide for them.

I hope to have the gift requests ready for distribution by Sunday, Nov. 4. My hope is that you will shop for the suggested gift and return it to the church – wrapped (with the gift request attached) -- no later than Sunday, Nov. 25.

Thank you for your consideration and continued generosity.
