JUST A LITTLE PRAYER

*Just a little prayer, that's all,
 Will ease your troubled mind,
 Will touch the very heart of God - -
 Will help you to unwind.
 Just a little prayer, that's all - -
 It doesn't take much time,
 But when you're through you'll be amazed
 How things work out just fine!

DATE	EVENT	COLOR	READINGS	INTRODUCTION
October 3rd	19th Sunday after Pentecost	green	Genesis 2: 18-24 Psalm 8 Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12 Mark 10: 2-16	Today's gospel combines a saying that makes many of us uncomfortable with a story we find comforting. Jesus' saying on divorce is another of his rejections of human legislation in favor of the original intent of God's law. Jesus' rebuke of the disciples who are fending off the children should challenge us as well. What does it mean to receive the kingdom of God as a child does?
October 10th	20th Sunday after Pentecost	green	Amos 5: 6-7, 10-15 Psalm 90: 12-17 Hebrews 4: 12-16 Mark 10: 17-31	The rich man who comes to ask Jesus what he should do to inherit eternal life is a good man, sincere in his asking. Mark's gospel is alone in saying that Jesus looked on him and loved him. Out of love, not as judgment, Jesus offers him an open door to life: sell all you own and give it to the poor. Our culture bombards us with the message that we will find life by consuming. Our assemblies counter this message with the invitation to find life by divesting for the sake of the other.
October 17th	21st Sunday after Pentecost	green	Isaiah 53: 4-12 Psalm 91: 9-16 Hebrews 5: 1-10 Mark 10: 35-45	Today's gospel starts with disciples obsessing over who will be closest to Jesus, leading to Jesus teaching his followers about God's take on importance and power. Here Jesus makes it explicit that the reversal of values in God's community is a direct challenge to the values of the dominant culture, where wielding power over others is what makes you great. When we pray "your kingdom come" we are praying for an end to tyranny and oppression. We pray this gathered around the cross, a sign of great shame transformed to be the sign of great honor and service.
October 24th	22nd Sunday after Pentecost	green	Jeremiah 31: 7-9 Psalm 126 Hebrews 7: 23-28 Mark 10: 46-52	Can we pray the way Bartimaeus prays? People try to hush him up because by addressing Jesus as "Son of David" he is making a politically dangerous claim that Jesus is the rightful king. Could our prayers ever be heard as a threat to unjust powers that be? Bartimaeus won't give up or go away quietly, but repeats his call for help more loudly. Do we ask so boldly? And are our prayers an honest answer to Jesus' question, "What do you want me to do for you?"
October 31st	Reformation Day	red	Jeremiah 31: 31-34 Psalm 46 Romans 3: 19-28 John 8: 31-36	Rooted in the past and growing into the future, the church must always be reformed in order to live out the love of Christ in an ever-changing world. We celebrate the good news of God's grace, that Jesus Christ sets us free every day to do this life-transforming work. Trusting in the freedom given to us in baptism, we pray for the church, that Christians will unite more fully in worship and mission.

Secretary's August 2021 Report:

Changed outdoor sign

Organized clothing shed

Completed office duties

Prepared agenda and reports for council

Took meeting minutes for council

Prepared 4 bulletins and 9 power point services

Prepared and distributed the Reachout

Faxed all bills and statements to Kelly

(council cont.)

Old Business:

- a. P. Ralph has obtained the permit from zoning to install the electronic sign. He also has received a final drawing from LED3 showing the top to be 2 feet high instead of three feet high. P. Ralph motions to accept the final drawing from LED3 knowing that we will need one or two feet of dirt at the base. Kevin seconds. Motion carried. Greg and Jeff have the requirements for the electric lines that need to be run to the sign. Jeff will run an extra pole for direct hook up to the church.
- b. Council will submit a slate of council nominees at the October meeting.
- c. A classified ad had been placed in local newspapers for a new pianist. It will run for three weeks. Nancy will check with career services at YSU to look for available students who play piano. Wendy will place the ad at local businesses. In the meantime, P. Ralph will play hymns on YouTube during worship.
- d. Greg will let council know about sealing the parking lot at the October meeting.

New Business:

- a. Andy, Kevin, and P. Ralph will hold interviews for the pianist when resumes are received.
- b. Sarah and Andy will sign the certificate of continued existence. Wendy will order a paper form so the church has a copy.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer led by Kevin.

September 21, 2021

Dear Friends of Camp,

Thank you for your generous support of the Camp Frederick Annual Golf Outing!

Once again God gifted us with a perfect day for golf and fellowship. While the outing saw fewer golfers than usual, those attending were treated to a great meal afterwards. Many also left with a door prize. At the end of the day, we are proud to say we raised over $9,000.

Camp Frederick is a local 501©3 charitable non-profit organization. In keeping with its mission to Love God, Love People and Love Creation, camp provides camping and other outdoor programs primarily for the youth of Mahoning, Trumbull, and Columbiana counties. The golf outing is one of our major fundraisers. Proceeds are used to help underwrite the cost of camping for youth as well as enhancing camp's programs.

This event would not be successful without the generous support of community-minded companies, organizations, and people like you!

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Matt Miller
